From a young age, Bryan was captivated by the enchantment of the holiday season. As a child, he would spend hours gazing at the sparkling Christmas lights adorning the houses in his neighborhood. He reveled in the excitement of finding the perfect Christmas tree and adorning it with ornaments that held special memories. Bryan found solace and joy in the traditions that surrounded Christmas.

A Christmas Miracle

One chilly winter day, as Bryan walked through the bustling streets of Indiana, he stumbled upon a family struggling to carry a large Christmas tree. Without hesitation, Bryan rushed to their aid, helping them carry the cumbersome load. This chance encounter marked the beginning of something truly magical.

The grateful family invited Bryan to their home for hot cocoa as a token of their appreciation. Little did they know that this simple act of kindness would become the foundation for what would later become an annual Christmas tradition. Bryan, with his infectious personality and heartwarming spirit, made such an impression that the family insisted he stay for dinner.

Over a delicious meal, Bryan and the family shared stories, laughter, and a newfound sense of belonging. It was as if fate had brought them together, intertwining their lives in a web of love and holiday cheer. From that day on, Bryan became an honorary member of the family, his presence at their Christmas gatherings eagerly awaited each year.

Spreading Christmas Magic

Bryan's love for Christmas didn't stop with that one family; it spread like wildfire throughout the town. Year after year, Bryan played a crucial role in organizing and hosting various Christmas events, ensuring that each resident felt the warmth and love of the holiday season.

One of the most cherished traditions that Bryan introduced to Indiana was the "Christmas Light Tour." He collaborated with homeowners to transform their houses into enchanting displays of lights, creating a magical wonderland that drew visitors from all around. Families would bundle up in warm coats and blankets, embarking on a journey through the town, mesmerized by the stunning lights and captivated by Bryan's infectious Christmas spirit.

A Timeless Indiana Christmas

As the years passed, Bryan's influence and impact on the town of Indiana continued to grow. His dedication to spreading Christmas joy inspired others to embrace the true meaning of the holiday season. Families would come together to help those in need, and children would write heartfelt letters to Santa, sharing their hopes and dreams.

Today, Indiana's Christmas celebrations have become legendary, drawing visitors from far and wide to experience the magic firsthand. Locals eagerly anticipate Bryan's lively presence and the unwavering community spirit that fills the air each Christmas.

Celebrating Love, Family, and Traditions

Bryan Furuness's story is a testament to the power of love, kindness, and the magic of the holiday season. His passion for Christmas has united a community, bringing people together and reminding them of the importance of generosity, gratitude, and togetherness.

So this Christmas, as you gather around the tree with your loved ones, take a moment to remember Bryan's story. Embrace the joy of the holiday season, cherish the moments spent with family and friends, and let the spirit of Christmas fill your heart with love and warmth.

“A grand and thrilling selection of Hoosier writing presented through the fraught lens of Christmas . . . a fascinating and utterly enjoyable read.” —Michael Dahlie, award-winning author of The Best of Youth

In An Indiana Christmas, editor Bryan Furuness brings together timeless short stories, poems, plays, and letters to help you get into the holiday spirit. Lose yourself in classics like “In God We Trust: All Others Pay Cash” by Jean Shepherd, which inspired the beloved movie A Christmas Story, and “A Feel in the Christmas Air” by James Whitcomb Riley, along with more recent literary works like “The Myth of the Perfect Christmas Photo Family” by Kelsey Timmerman and “While Mortals Sleep” by famed Indiana writer Kurt Vonnegut. To achieve the perfect combination of Christmas nostalgia and cheer, Furuness has curated Hoosier stories that allow you to experience an idyllic holiday gathering in “Indiana Winter” by Susan Neville, feel the excitement of a child on Christmas Eve with “Earthbound” by Barbara Shoup, and face the loneliness of a drifter on Christmas night in “Howard Garfield, Balladeer” by Edward Porter. The collection even offers the chance to read a Christmas war dispatch from the late, great Hoosier journalist Ernie Pyle.

Heartfelt and unique, “the stories, poems, and essays in An Indiana Christmas will stay with you long after reading, no matter the season” (Sarah Layden, author of The Story I Tell About Myself).

“A curl-up book you will savor year after year.” —Margaret McMullan, author of Where the Angels Lived
