Uff! .. Where to start, ... I think I was full of dreams but living a traditional life, someone else's life. Where to work hard, pay bills, save for the house and the truck, was the summary of the day to day. It was not the life I wanted, but nevertheless I woke up early every day and lived it ... I longed for freedom ... and it was what I felt when I made the decision to leave everything and start living my dreams and that every decision I made was to create something that I love and I am passionate about, and not based on the needs imposed by this society.
