

Bangkok Temple Map For Silom: The Wrong Side Of The Tracks

When exploring the bustling streets of Bangkok, visitors are often drawn to the vibrant neighborhood of Silom. With its buzzing marketplaces, bustling nightlife, and trendy restaurants, Silom has established itself as a popular destination for locals and tourists alike. However, there is more to Silom than meets the eye.

Hidden amongst the concrete jungle lies a rich cultural heritage, encapsulated in the numerous temples or "wats" that dot the area. This article will guide you through a temple map of Silom, taking you to lesser-known but equally captivating places of worship.

Your temple journey begins with Wat Hua Lamphong, situated just a stone's throw away from the bustling Hua Lamphong Railway Station. This hidden gem offers a tranquil escape from the city's chaos. Its striking architecture and peaceful ambiance make it a favorite among locals seeking solace.

Temple 2: Wat Kaphrao

A short walk from Wat Hua Lamphong, you'll stumble upon Wat Kaphrao. Nestled amidst the urban hustle and bustle, this sacred haven provides a serene environment for reflection and prayer. With its magnificent golden spires and intricately crafted statues, it is truly a sight to behold.

Temple 3: Wat Rattanakosin

Further along your temple exploration, you'll encounter Wat Rattanakosin. This historic temple stands as a testament to Bangkok's rich heritage. The temple complex houses a grand pagoda, adorned with intricate carvings and colorful murals depicting ancient Thai legends. You'll feel transported back in time as you admire the timeless beauty of this architectural masterpiece.

Temple 4: Wat Phaya Krai

Your temple map journey concludes with Wat Phaya Krai, a hidden treasure tucked away in a secluded corner of Silom. This offbeat temple offers a unique experience as it is surrounded by lush greenery, providing a serene escape from the urban chaos. As you explore the temple grounds, you'll discover a tranquil pond and a mesmerizing collection of Buddha statues, making it a perfect spot for meditation and self-reflection.

Silom, often acknowledged for its commercial vibrancy, unveils its hidden charm through the magnificent temples that reside within its boundaries. The temple map of Silom takes you on a journey through tranquility, spirituality, and architectural brilliance. Explore these lesser-known temples and delve into the rich cultural tapestry that Bangkok has to offer.
