Located just a short drive from Calgary, Banff National Park is a haven for outdoor enthusiasts. With its majestic mountains, lush forests, and crystal-clear lakes, Banff offers endless opportunities for hiking, biking, camping, and wildlife spotting. Don't miss the iconic Moraine Lake and Lake Louise, whose turquoise waters will leave you breathless.

2. Calgary Tower

For a panoramic view of the city, head to the iconic Calgary Tower. Standing at 191 meters tall, this landmark offers a breathtaking 360-degree panorama of the cityscape. Enjoy a delicious meal at the revolving restaurant or test your fear of heights by stepping onto the glass floor observation deck.

3. Heritage Park Historical Village

Step back in time at Heritage Park Historical Village, Canada's largest living history museum. Spread across 127 acres, this park showcases over 180 exhibits reflecting Western Canadian history. Ride an authentic steam train, visit historic buildings, and interact with costumed historical interpreters to truly immerse yourself in the past.

4. Calgary Zoo

Home to over 1,000 animals from around the world, the Calgary Zoo is a must-visit destination for animal lovers. Explore various exhibits, including the newly opened Panda Passage, where you can witness adorable giant pandas up close. Don't forget to catch a glimpse of the majestic gorillas and playful penguins during your visit.

5. Glenbow Museum

Immerse yourself in art, history, and culture at the Glenbow Museum. With its extensive collection of over a million artifacts, the museum takes visitors on a journey through Western Canadian history. From indigenous art to contemporary exhibitions, there is something for everyone at this renowned cultural institution.

6. Drumheller

A short drive northeast of Calgary, Drumheller is known as the "Dinosaur Capital of the World." Explore the Badlands and visit the Royal Tyrrell Museum, which houses one of the largest displays of dinosaur fossils in the world. Marvel at the gigantic Tyrannosaurus Rex and learn about the prehistoric world that once existed in this region.

7. Calgary Stampede

Experience the thrill of the Calgary Stampede, known as "The Greatest Outdoor Show on Earth." This annual event features a rodeo, chuckwagon races, live music, amusement rides, and delicious food. Join in the festive atmosphere and witness the rich cowboy culture that remains an integral part of Calgary's identity.

8. Prince's Island Park

Escape the bustling city and relax at Prince's Island Park, an urban oasis located in the heart of Calgary. This picturesque park is an ideal spot for a leisurely stroll, picnic, or outdoor concert during the summer months. Enjoy the calming sounds of the Bow River and marvel at the vibrant flora that adorns the park.

9. Olympic Plaza

Visit Olympic Plaza, a public square located in downtown Calgary that hosted the medal ceremonies during the 1988 Winter Olympics. Take a walk around the plaza and admire the sculptures and fountains that commemorate the Games. In the winter, the plaza transforms into a skating rink, providing a unique experience for visitors.

10. Stephen Avenue Walk

Stroll along Stephen Avenue Walk, a vibrant pedestrian-only street in downtown Calgary. Lined with shops, restaurants, cafes, and galleries, this historic street offers a lively atmosphere and a chance to indulge in retail therapy or savor delicious cuisine at one of the many eateries.

Calgary is a city that seamlessly blends natural beauty, history, and modern attractions. Whether you are an adventure seeker, history enthusiast, or just looking for a relaxing getaway, Calgary has something for everyone. Plan your visit and immerse yourself in the charm of these ten must-visit locations. Your Calgary adventure awaits!
