Explore Valencia's Top Attractions

Lonely Planet has done the research for you, so you don't miss out on the best Valencia has to offer. Discover the stunning City of Arts and Sciences, an ultramodern complex housing an opera house, an interactive science museum, and Europe's largest aquarium. Marvel at the intricate architecture of Valencia Cathedral, a Gothic masterpiece dating back to the 13th century.

Indulge your taste buds in the Central Market, a bustling hub of fresh produce, local delicacies, and vibrant colors. Take a stroll through the charming Turia Gardens, a transformed riverbed turned into a green oasis stretching across the city. Don't forget to experience the exhilaration of a traditional bullfight in Plaza de Toros, a cultural spectacle deeply ingrained in Spanish history and tradition.

Uncover Hidden Gems

Lonely Planet Pocket Valencia Travel Guide goes beyond the usual tourist hotspots and introduces you to off-the-beaten-path experiences. Discover El Carmen, a trendy neighborhood adorned with vibrant street art, atmospheric cafes, and quirky shops. Lose yourself in the narrow alleyways and stumble upon hidden terraces and charming squares filled with local life.

For the art lovers, the guide directs you to the IVAM Museum of Modern Art, showcasing an impressive collection of contemporary works and installations. Explore the picturesque Port Saplaya, known as "Little Venice," with its colorful houses and charming canals reminiscent of the Italian city.

Tips from Local Experts

No travel guide is complete without insights from the locals. The Lonely Planet Pocket Valencia Travel Guide brings you firsthand recommendations from Valencia residents. Learn about the best tapas bars to savor authentic Spanish cuisine, the most scenic spots for sunset views, and the hidden beaches where you can escape the crowds.

Additionally, the guide contains practical information about transportation, accommodation options to suit every budget, and essential Spanish phrases to help you communicate with locals.
