Junior year was supposed to be the year where things were supposed to be going gaily for Olivia, Simone, Ayana, Loni, and Vanessa. They assumed they would be starting on a clean slate and no one would be able to drag them into any kind of drama like the years prior of having to deal with the misfortunes that was caused by their peers who always threw dirt on their names, and did anything to get under their skin. But the five were determined to not let that happen again this year. They were not going to allow things that were so petty to drag them down. They were going to dodge drama the same way they dodged dm's from overly thirsty guys and remain unbothered while having their fun. Or at least this was what they thought. While Olivia, Simone, Ayana, Loni, and Vanessa are enjoying the last few weeks of their summer vacation, they are completely unaware of what will be lurking around the corner when school is back in session.
