What's Your Happy Place?

If you said Disneyland, you're in good company. Journalist and film critic Scott Renshaw profiles some remarkable people who have let the Disney theme parks take over their lives—in a healthy way, of course—and examines why Disney holds such primacy in our culture.

You'll hear the stories of:

- Deb Wills, owner of the uber-popular fan site AllEars
- Jeff Reitz, who has visited Disneyland consecutively for 2000 days
- Guy Selga, who tramps through Disneyland for hours every week, jotting down wait times for TouringPlans
- Leo Camacho and Sarah Sterling, whose DisneyBounding characters are almost as popular in the parks as the real thing

And many others for whom Disneyland is not just a park but a passion.
