However, her newfound success is overshadowed by her complicated love life. On one hand, there's Calder Castleman, a devastatingly handsome and wealthy chef who sets her heart ablaze with his intense gaze and undeniable charm. On the other hand, there's Max Pettersson, a charismatic and passionate journalist who challenges her both intellectually and emotionally.

As Harper navigates her professional and personal life, she must make difficult decisions that will shape her future. Will she follow her heart's desire and pursue a forbidden love affair? Or will she choose a safer path and prioritize her career?

The choices she makes will have far-reaching consequences for her relationships and aspirations.

The Breathtaking Romance

Addison Moore's "Hot Honey Kisses" masterfully explores the complexities of love and desire. The chemistry between Harper and both Calder and Max is palpable, leaving readers eagerly flipping through the pages to discover who will capture her heart in the end.

Moore's prose beautifully captures the intense emotions that come with falling in love, and her vivid descriptions of passionate embraces and stolen kisses create an immersive reading experience. With every page, readers can't help but feel their own hearts racing in anticipation of what's to come.

The Intriguing Mystery

While romance takes center stage in "Hot Honey Kisses," there's also a captivating mystery woven into the narrative. As Harper delves deeper into her love affairs, she uncovers hidden secrets that could change everything she thought she knew about her lovers and herself.

The suspense builds throughout the story, keeping readers on the edge of their seats. Moore expertly balances the gripping romance and the intriguing mystery, creating a perfect blend of passion and suspense that will keep readers captivated until the very last page.

"Hot Honey Kisses" is a must-read for fans of Addison Moore's "3am Kisses" series and anyone who enjoys a steamy romance novel filled with compelling characters and unexpected twists. What does an obnoxious attorney, a coed gone wild, and a corpse have in common? Shep and Serena are about to find out the hard way.

Spending summer in Hollow Brook will be murder.

When Serena lets her roommate talk her into going to an exotic nightclub that promises to make all of her wildest dreams come true, she's mortified to find the man behind the mask has an all too familiar obnoxious face. But it turns out Serena and Shep share more than a penchant for soft restraints—they share a propensity for trouble. Finding a corpse places Serena and Shep right at the top of the suspect list, and try as they might to unravel the mystery themselves, they discover that time has already run out for the two of them. Or has it just begun?
