Christmas: The Die Hard Connection

Die Hard, an action-packed movie set during Christmas time, may not seem like an obvious Christmas flick. However, upon closer examination, we can draw parallels between the movie and the holiday season. Both Die Hard and Christmas have the power to bring people together, showcase acts of heroism, and create lasting memories. The movie teaches us that even in the face of danger, hope and love can triumph.

Monty's Christmas Lesson

Monty's a moose with a cold. It's Christmas Eve and he feels sorry for himself with his coughing, sneezing and bright red nose.

There's one person who really needs Monty's red nose, and that's Santa Claus. Rudolph has been taken ill and Santa can't see very well without Rudolph's bright red nose to guide his Christmas sleigh.

The only problem is Monty's family and friends are expecting Monty to join in their festive fun, as normal.

So, read Monty's Christmas Lesson to discover whether the moose stays loyal to his family and friends or whether he takes a trip across the night's sky with Santa Claus and his reindeer.

Teaches children the value of family of friends.

Written in a simple and humorous rhyming format.

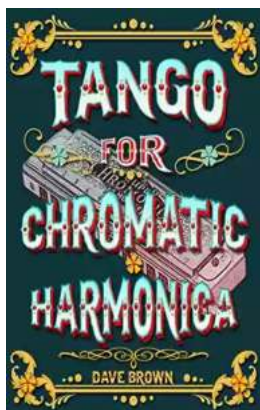

Wonderfully illustrated.

Suitable for ages 4-8 years old.

A charming children's story all about the true meaning of spending Christmas with your family and friends.
