From international bestselling author Rob Horner comes Night Zero: Second Day.

Second Day continues the epic story begun in Night Zero, redefining the ZomPoc genre and bringing new life to the lifeless.

When the government tried to take choice away from Americans, they ended up causing the very thing they sought to prevent—an outbreak which threatens everyone.

That was yesterday.

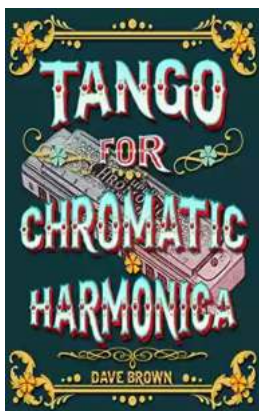

Today, the virus continues to spread, the dead attack the living, and only a few lucky souls are immune.

After escaping from the hospital, Buck and his friends find the infection has spread much further than they anticipated. Their families are in danger, and a vicious hunter is on their trail. Jesse struggles to complete the request of a dying man, "Get this to the CDC," but a stop to refuel his plane puts him right back in danger.

A new group of survivors emerge in Tuscaloosa. They've got the skills and the ammo, but will they be able to stem the tide rushing at them?

Zombies that can think and plan. New mutations guaranteed to propagate the species. And a new front, as a cruise ship receives a dusting of virus-laden debris.

Get ready for the Second Day.
