This story of my pregnancy is going to be like a journal entry with the months I'm pregnant and I could never be more happier than ever before in my life. I am super excited and overwhelmed with so much happiness me and my Esposo have been waiting for this amazing news since we have become a us. I found out late March the 30th at 7a.m. I was pregnant. I have been with my Esposo for 4 years now and just after we got married in January I got pregnant in March! I stopped trying to get pregnant in November and as soon as February came along I told my Esposo maybe we should wait to start a family he didn't like that news, but I was having too much stress on my body and worrying didn't help either about getting pregnant. The day I found out I was pregnant was the happiest day of my life because I am overwhelmed with the feeling of my little baby growing inside his Mommies tummy. I can't wait to hold him in my arms the day he comes into this world.
