Exploring Identity and Belonging

One of the central themes of "Riffs On Life Between Cultures In Ten Voices" is the exploration of identity and belonging. The authors confront the complex questions of who they are, where they belong, and how they fit into a society that constantly challenges cultural norms. From tales of immigrants seeking acceptance in a foreign land to bi-cultural individuals grappling with their dual heritage, the stories within this anthology paint a vivid picture of the internal struggles and external pressures that shape one's sense of self.

Through the characters' journeys, readers are invited to reflect on their own identity and what it means to belong in a world that often categorizes individuals based on culture, ethnicity, or nationality. The stories transcend borders, reminding us that regardless of our backgrounds, we all share a common desire for acceptance and a place to call home.

A Universal Human Experience

While "Riffs On Life Between Cultures In Ten Voices" focuses on the multicultural experience, the themes within this anthology resonate with readers from all walks of life. Each story, though rooted in specific cultural contexts, touches upon universal emotions such as love, loss, and the pursuit of dreams. By celebrating our differences, these narratives ultimately highlight our shared humanity.

The power of literature lies in its ability to transcend boundaries and foster empathy. Through the voices of these ten authors, readers are given the opportunity to step into the shoes of someone different from themselves, to understand their struggles, and to celebrate their triumphs. By doing so, we can all begin to recognize the strength and beauty of multiculturalism.

"Riffs On Life Between Cultures In Ten Voices" is an anthology that offers a poignant exploration of the multicultural experience. Through the voices of ten diverse authors, readers are presented with compelling narratives that tackle themes of identity, belonging, and the universal human experience. This book serves as a reminder of the power of cultural exchange and the beauty that lies within our diverse world.

Using humor as the common denominator, a multicultural cast of YA authors steps up to the mic to share stories touching on race. Listen in as ten YA authors — some familiar, some new — use their own brand of humor to share their stories about growing up between cultures. Henry Choi Lee discovers that pretending to be a tai chi master or a sought-after wiz at math wins him friends for a while — until it comically backfires. A biracial girl is amused when her dad clears seats for his family on a crowded subway in under a minute flat, simply by sitting quietly in between two uptight white women. Edited by acclaimed author and speaker Mitali Perkins, this collection of fiction and nonfiction uses a mix of styles as diverse as their authors, from laugh-out-loud funny to wry, ironic, or poignant, in prose, poetry, and comic form.
