If you're thinking about joining Embark, I'm very glad I did! It made me get out with my camera consistently and try new things. I even got a new client from it when I recruited a dog in a local park for a head tilt - the dog mom got my website and she contacted me for a session! Most importantly, I learned a lot on how to improve (both shooting and editing) by Charlotte's and Craig's comments. #embarkround
