Tanu is at the facade of the 'arranged' travails that her parents have laid down for her. Longing for a tad bit of change from her ubiquitous life, one day her wish being granted, she is tied to a roller coaster ride trying to create balance between heights and speed. She wants to run away, scream and fall into line all at the same time and her crazy family adds to her days of adventure. This family boasts proudly of its eccentricity, a father who is cutting on sleep to surf matrimonial sites, a mother whose melodramatic reflex can kick in anytime and a sister who is a practicing tattletale and is always on the brink of emanating knowledge on the big fat experience. Delve in further to become a part of the 'arranged' journey of the protagonist and her family.
