In his book Exodus – Myth or History? Egyptologist and historian, David Rohl, revealed the true archaeological history of Joseph and the Israelite Sojourn in Egypt, the Exodus under Moses, and the Conquest of the Promised Land led by Joshua. In Legendary Kings (Volume One), Rohl continues his epic story with the Judges Period and the Hebrew Revolt against the Philistines led by King Saul. This startling new reality of biblical history is revealed through Rohl's New Chronology, which places the Exodus at the end of the 13th Dynasty in Egypt and the Conquest of Canaan in the Middle Bronze IIB. The story then evolves into the Middle Bronze IIC and Late Bronze I, when we find evidence for the settlement of the Israelite tribes in the Central Hill Country of Canaan during the Judges era. Legendary Kings (Volume One) comes to a climax with the rise of Israel's first king, his revolt against Egypt's Philistine vassals, and his death on the heights of Mount Gilboa – all dramatically confirmed in the famous collection of tablets known as the Amarna Letters. Volume Two of Legendary Kings will take up the story with the lives and times of Kings David and Solomon (now set in the Late Bronze Age), and ending with the fall of Jerusalem at the hands of the Neo-Babylonian King Nebuchadnezzar II in 587 BC, thus completing the story of ancient Israel as revealed through the revised Egyptian timeline of the New Chronology.

Legendary Kings Volume One is divided into three separate parts. This is Part Three.
