He broke the law. He broke her heart. He's going to pay.

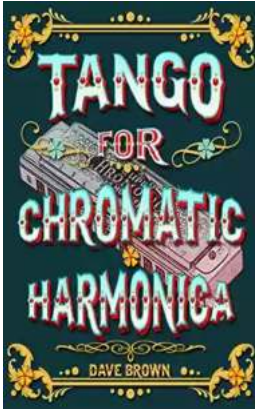

Gwen Carter did not come millions of light years from Earth just to be made a fool of by an ex-boyfriend. First, JaQuan ran out on her after she decided to join the Space Rangers. Then, he joined a terrorist cell and kidnapped a senator's daughter. When she tracked him down, he shot her, locked her up, and left her for dead. But she didn't die. He's going to regret that.

JaQuan Jones just can't escape his past. First, an old friend uses him without his consent to kidnap a political prisoner. Then, his ex-girlfriend is the cop who finds them. Why did it have to be Gwen? He's got enough trouble just trying to repair the ship's hyperdrive and clear his name, without dredging up the worst mistake of his life.

Two former lovers are on a collision with destiny and each other. If they can't reconcile their broken hearts, they'll destroy the human race.
