"If it's facts you want, you'd better look somewhere else." -- Archie Ledbetter

After his foray into Montana to become a cowboy and a bounty hunter, Archie Ledbetter finds that getting rich there is not as easy as it is said to be in Nevada, so "a course" he heads there for the riches and the "famosity," which both turn out to be just as difficult to attain there. He manages to go through the careers of newspaperman, entertainer, telegraph runner, fisherman, lumber tycoon, and several others. With each "career," he finds himself falling further and further behind, rather than getting further and further ahead. Once his best friend from back in Iowa, Percy Larson cashes his chips and heads home, Archie makes another decision which will send him on another adventure: finding his long lost girl friend, Emily Prater.
