Some poetry is deep and empathic. Some poetry is short and humorous. Some poetry is medium and life eventful. But all poetry is food for thought and for the soul.

Wondering Ardor is a humorous walk through life. From simple contemplations to deep repressed desires. From a mother's warnings to "Take Your Dishes With You" to a daughter's first crush. From "Why Did I Get Married" to "I Miss My Life, My Love". Wondering Ardor is a delightful look at the magical occurrences that happen every day.
